A circular photograph of the Church of San Juan in Valencia. The church features a light-colored, textured facade with a large circular window and a tall, ornate bell tower. The scene is set against a clear blue sky with some clouds. A person is visible on the steps leading to the entrance, and a white van is parked on the street to the right. The image is framed by a circular border with a dotted line pattern.

A group of seven people, including a priest and several lay members, are standing in a line in a stone church. They are all dressed in black robes. The priest, on the right, is holding a book and looking towards the group. The lay members are also holding books and looking towards the priest. The church has a rustic, stone interior with a large wooden door in the background. A large white floral arrangement is visible on the left side of the frame.
